

The small print

- The recommended hire period for a birthday party is 3 hours. If you're planning a shorter party though, please contact your preferred venue for advice on what's available to suit your needs.
- The final room hire cost will depend on the size of room required for your party and any entertainment you have planned.
- Space for large equipment like bouncy castles is subject to availability of a suitable room - please confirm this with your preferred venue before booking party entertainment.
- Selected venues have kitchen facilities for party use. If you plan to bring your own catering and need access to a kitchen, please check this with your preferred venue.
- A deposit is payable at the time of booking, with the balance due in full 10 days before the party date.
- Party bookers are responsible for ensuring the safe set up and operation of any equipment they hire for their party. Glasgow Life cannot accept any liability for this.

For further information, please contact the venue directly, or our venue hire team.
