Lynn C. Duncan School of Dance

Having been a dance teacher for over 32 years, and with over 18 years' experience as a dance examiner for the BATD, Lynn C Duncan is one of the longest established and most experienced providers of dance lessons in Glasgow and Lanarkshire.

Through her dance schools, in the East End and South Side of Glasgow and in several Lanarkshire towns, Lynn has successfully taught literally thousands of pupils of all ages. All schools have a perfect pass rate in examinations, with many pupils going on to qualify as dance teachers themselves.

While offering classes in traditional styles like Modern and Tap, Lynn has consistently been able to include up-to-date moves in her street dance and freestyle lessons for children. For adults Lynn also keeps up to date. Her current classes include Zumba.

Visit the list of dance class venues and times to see where you or your children can join in the fun, make new friends and learn to dance from one of the best teachers around.

Dance Classes for boys and girls from age 2 years up to teacher training.

McLaughlin School of Irish Dancing

The McLaughlin School of Irish Dancing School is based in the south side of Glasgow. As the most decorated dance school in Scotland with 100 World Championship titles, pupils develop an array of skills in an environment of excellence. The School was established in 1966 by James McLaughlin (TCRG) & Kathleen McLaughlin (ADCRG) who are assisted by their three daughters Sinead McLaughlin (ADCRG), Eileen and Kathleen.

The school offers classes throughout the south side of Glasgow to boys and girls ranging in age from 3+ from beginner level through to World Championship standard.

Our aim is to provide every pupil with an enjoyable experience and an opportunity to learn this magnificent and unique form of dance whilst improving both fitness and confidence. New dancers are always welcome to the class.

All instructors are registered with An Coimisiun le Rinci Gaelacha, the Governing body of Irish dancing for which James is presently the Vice President for Scotland. The class is fully insured and all teachers disclosed.

Older Adults Activity Group

As part of the Community Sport Hub programme we are pleased to have a weekly activity session targeting older adults. The session runs on Wednesdays from 11 – 1pm and the focus of the activity is to get older adults out the house, doing some fun activities and also to meet new people and make new friends.

Some of the activities on offer are: Carpet Bowls, Table Tennis, Badminton, Snooker & Pool.

To find out more please come along to a session, contact the centre on 0141 647 0969 or email us on hubs@glasgowlife.org.uk

If you would you like to get involved, start a new club or volunteer you are at the right place!

We can connect you with the right volunteering opportunity and we are delighted to be able to offer funding for coach education & training to support you on your volunteering journey.

Ronin Karate Club

Our club was established in 1986 at the Geoff Shaw Community Centre by our Head Instructor Charles Hunter who is a 5th Dan Karate Coach. Since then the club has developed and we now have sessions in Govanhill Neighbourhood Centre and also in Fernhill. Our club is part of the Itosu-Kai federation which is a worldwide federation that has many clubs across the globe including; Japan, China, Spain, Sweden, Canada, Ireland, Scotland, South Africa, America and many more.

We are registered with sportscotland recognised governing body for our sport – Scottish Karate Governing Body (SKGB). All our coaches are qualified, vetted and insured through SKGB. We have also achieved Glasgow Sport's prestigious Club Mark award in recognising our club as a safe, inclusive and well organised club.

We are a Positive Coaching Club and warmly welcome new members to our club and look forward to having you try our sport and join our club.
