GLASGOW MUSEUMS RESOURCE CENTRE

GMRC is celebrating the Circus and its wonders. Puppets, masks, tricks and mystery! Gather around and Come and explore our object stores and take part in an arts workshop making masks and puppets.

KELVIN HALL

Aerial edge flying trapeze:
11 am - 1pm and 2 - 4pm

Come along and see Aerial Edge's spectacular flying trapeze in action. If you're lucky you might get a chance to have a try! You'll need to be aged 7 and over, and wearing comfortable clothes but no experience is necessary. A unique opportunity to fly through the air. Due to limited capacity for these taster sessions, willing participants will be chosen lottery-style!

Building Tours

11.30am, 12.30pm, 1.30pm, 2.30pm

The Kelvin Hall hosted Glasgow's annual circus from 1924 until 1987. It's also been the venue for pop concerts, exhibitions, the transport museum and international sports gatherings. Join us for an informal building tour to learn more about the history of this unique Glasgow venue.

PROVAND'S LORDSHIP

Roll up, roll up to the oldest house in Glasgow! For fabulous facepainting and creative crafts.

RIVERSIDE MUSEUM

Get inspired by our cinema, toy shop and fairground displays. Home-make something special to entertain and delight your friends.

GOVAN STONES

"Bones 'n' Stones Medieval Fair": Step back to a time of ancient kingdoms and Viking invasion. See warrior monuments up close and try your hand at ancient arts & crafts!

FAIRFIELD GOVAN

Step back in time to a Clydebuilt ship-launch! Tour Glasgow's greatest shipyard alongside a Glesga character! Try out sea-themed arts activities! Explore shipyard life with 3D displays and artefacts!"
